

Engeki Design Guild

<http://www.edg.or.jp>

We think that "engeki(theater)" is a tool for people to get new understandings and perspectives of our lives and society.

We help people to express their feelings, thoughts, and ideas through diverse artistic activities, so that people can communicate with others better and deeper.

Our group name, "engeki Design" draw our mission which we prepare creative processes and fun, playful environment to promote people's active participation and dialogue.

About us:

We are a group of artist/facilitators.

Each member has their own special fields, such as community issues, woman's issue, gender, people with handicaps, youth, children, and so on.

We facilitate variety of workshops, such as creative theater workshop, Forum Theater, history workshop, map making workshop, visual arts, body movement, sound and songs, so on.

Some of our recent works:

"Foreigners in your town"(2007)

Workshop for youth to exchange experiences and share ideas toward multicultural society

Theater workshop with Achenese Children.(2007)

Working with children who had suffered from long-lasting political conflict in Indonesia

Women's Creative workshop(2006)

Workshop theme was "marriage". They participated in Street Theater Festival which we help to organize.

"Living in Minamata":

Theater project to reconstruct community after 50 years of Minamata Disease(2006)

Community people's stories in Setagaya, Tokyo.(Since 1999 ~)

We interview many people in the town. The main Theme was " river"
